SAN MATEO COUNTY CHARTER

Forward

The general purpose of a county charter is to provide a measure of home rule to the counties of the state. Authority to adopt charters is conferred upon counties by Article XI, Section 7 1/2, of the Constitution of the State of California.

Such charters, when ratified by the voters of the county and accepted and filed by the Secretary of State, become the organic law of the counties relative to matters therein which are authorized by the State Constitution, and supersede all laws inconsistent therewith.

As provided by the Government Code of the State of California, the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, or the County Clerk, if serving as ex-officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, is the official custodian of the County Ordinance Code and the County Charter in Counties that have adopted a County Charter.

It is the responsibility of the Clerk to insure that any and all amendments, additions and deletions are properly made and incorporated into the Charter, and that the Secretary of State be properly notified, within thirty (30) days of any changes to the Charter, and that the Secretary of State's Certification of Change be filed in the Clerk's office.

The Charter of the County of San Mateo was duly ratified by the qualified electors of the county at an election held on the 8th day of November 1932, was approved by the State Legislature and filed in the office of the Secretary of State of California on the 28th day of January 1933. Since that time, the Charter has been amended by the electorate in November 1936; June 1937; November 1940; November 1942; November 1946; November 1948; November 1956; April 1961; April 1965; November 1966; June 1970; June 1972; November 1972; June 1974; March 1977 and June 1978.

The first complete revision of the Charter was ratified by the voters November 7, 1978, and filed with the Secretary of State on November 30, 1978. Since that time, the Charter was amended by the electorate in November 1980, November 1987, and June 1993. A second complete revision of the charter was ratified by the voters on November 7, 1995. After this second revision, the Charter was amended by the electorate in November 2004, November 2010, and November 2012.

Preamble

We, the people of San Mateo County, adopt this Charter to provide a local government responsive to our social, economic, physical and environmental needs and goals in a democratic, just and efficient manner.

ARTICLE I - POWERS OF THE ELECTORS

101. Elections.

Except as otherwise provided in this Charter, all elections to nominate or elect candidates and to vote on ballot questions shall be conducted pursuant to the general law of the State of California.

Candidates shall pay for the cost of their statement of qualifications in the ballot pamphlet unless the Board of Supervisors determines otherwise.

102. Initiative, Referendum, Recall and Charter Change.

The electors of the County may by majority vote and pursuant to general law:

- a. Exercise the powers of initiative and referendum.
- b. Recall an elected officer who has held office for six months.
- c. Amend, revise or repeal this Charter.

ARTICLE II - BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

201. Governing Body.

The Board of Supervisors is the governing body of the County of San Mateo. The Board consists of five members.

202. Election.

Supervisors are elected by district. The five supervisorial districts shall be apportioned by ordinance pursuant to general law.

Candidates for the office of Supervisor shall be electors in the district which they seek to represent. If a Supervisor ceases to reside in that district, the seat becomes vacant.

Except as otherwise provided in this Charter, Supervisors shall be nominated and elected pursuant to general law for a term of four years. Supervisors shall not be eligible for election to nor serve more than three consecutive terms in office. (Amended November 2012.)

203. Vacancies.

If a vacancy occurs on the Board of Supervisors at any time on or before October 15th of the third calendar year of a term, the Board shall, within 30 days of the effective date of the vacancy, order the calling of a special election to fill the vacancy. If the Board does not call a special election within 30 days, the county officer responsible for conducting elections shall immediately order a special election to be called to fill the vacancy. For purposes of this section, the special election may be conducted as an all-mailed ballot election, at the discretion of the Board or the county officer responsible for conducting elections, as applicable. The special election shall be held not less than 102 days and not more than 131 days from the order calling the election, except that it may be held on an election date regularly established by general law if that date falls within 180 days from the order calling the special election. The election shall be conducted pursuant to the general law governing the direct primary so far as applicable, except the county officer responsible for conducting county elections may prescribe the periods for securing signatures in lieu of a filing fee, for circulating and filing nomination papers, for publishing the notice of election and for applying for absentee ballots. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes, irrespective of whether a majority of votes are received, is elected for the remainder of the term.

If the vacancy occurs after October 15th of the third calendar year of a term, the Board shall within 45 days of the effective date of the vacancy, either call a special election, make an appointment, or determine to leave the office vacant until the end of the term. If a special election is called, it shall be held on the earliest date that is administratively possible as determined in consultation with the county officer responsible for conducting elections. Any appointment or calling of the special election must be by a minimum of three votes of the remaining members of the Board of Supervisors. In the event three votes cannot be obtained, the vacancy shall remain unfilled for the remainder of the term.

For purposes of determining the number of consecutive terms that a member of the Board of Supervisors may serve under Section 202 of this Charter, any person elected to fill a vacancy on the Board will be considered to have served one full term if there are two or more years remaining in the term determined as of the date of election to fill the vacancy; and any person appointed to fill a vacancy, or elected to fill a vacancy on the Board with less than two years remaining in the term as of the date of election to fill the vacancy, will not be considered to have served a term.

Any written letter of resignation from a member of the Board of Supervisors shall be delivered to the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, and shall be irrevocable when delivered. The process to fill a vacancy under this Section may be commenced immediately on the date the resignation is filed, irrespective of whether a deferred effective date is specified in the resignation. In any instance where a successor is elected or appointed to by the Board under this section prior to the deferred effective date specified in the letter of resignation, the successor shall take office when the deferred resignation becomes effective by the terms of the letter of resignation. (Amended November 2010.)
